5 Reasons Why Nigerian Women Stay in Abusive Marriages

Abusive relationships are not new in Nigeria. It is estimated that 25 percent of women in Nigeria face domestic abuse. Nigerian women do not just go through abuse daily, but most choose to remain with their abuser.

Here are 5 reasons why Nigerian women stay in Abusive Marriages:

1. Religion

Nigerians are very religious people. They believe that marriage, especially for women, should be "until death do us part". Religious groups in Nigeria do not believe anyone should walk out of a marriage no matter the circumstance. Good women are supposed to pray for change and not walk out.

2. Financial constraints

Women in Nigeria earn much lower than their male counterparts. Also, a lot of Nigerian women were raised to rely on men for their every financial need - they move from depending on their parents to depending on husbands. The average Nigerian woman does not understand that she needs to have a F*ck off fund for rainy days.

No Condoms! Here Are 14 Other Ways You Can Prevent HIV Infection

As HIV becomes a growing threat around the world, people want access to information that can help them to avoid this potentially deadly disease. Medical experts have indicated that condoms can be a good way to prevent an HIV infection, but there are other steps you can take to reduce your chances of contracting HIV.

Abstain

The most effective way to not contract HIV is to not have sex with anyone until you are prepared to get married. When the time comes, you and your significant other can get the tests done to determine your HIV status, and then make the informed decision that will affect the rest of your lives.

Be selective on your sexual partners

When you find someone who you have strong feelings for, it is important to have an open discussion about HIV prior to having sex. If you are extremely selective about the partners you choose, then you can significantly reduce your chances of contracting HIV.

How To Catch A Cheating Husband And Make Yourself Unhappy

If a husband is cheating, the wife will often suspect something is up almost immediately. Some of the indicators that a husband is cheating would be a change in his normal routine or a lack of interest in getting intimate. But how do you actually catch a husband in the act of being unfaithful? There are many interesting and high-tech methods wives can use to find out just what their husbands are up to.

Try A Honey Trap

Honey traps have been around for a very long time and the simple reason for their popularity is, they work. If you think that your husband is cheating on you, then the chances that he will look for other cheating opportunities are pretty high. That is when you set a honey trap and catch him in the act.

To set a honey trap, you need a very attractive woman that is not yourself or a friend of yours that your husband knows.

How To Manage Your Finances In 2017

It's 2017! Amid the troubled economy, we have managed to get here. The complex nature of our nation's turbulent economy has impacted all Nigerians and left many feeling confused and anxious. The good news is that regardless of how uncertain things may be, the basic fundamentals of personal financial management still apply, so stay focused on this. And hey, don't worry. Things will get better; you just need to plan. Make real plans, real financial goals and real accountability when managing your finances this year. Here are some helpful tips:

1. Create a budget: We are in challenging times, and so you have to live with times. Living as though nothing has changed during these challenging times can make a bad situation worse; changing your spending habits must be a priority. Budgeting is one of the most important tools for financial security; a good budget will help you to plan for, and monitor your expenses so you can identify where to cut back if necessary. Where does your money go? Can you cut back a little? Sometimes using a pen and paper is just fine.

If You Want to Struggle Less, Get a Mentor! - Patrick Nwakogo

If you desire to make less mistakes, lose less time & resources and accomplish more, get a mentor!

Patrick Nwakogo
CEO, GetCareerNigeria

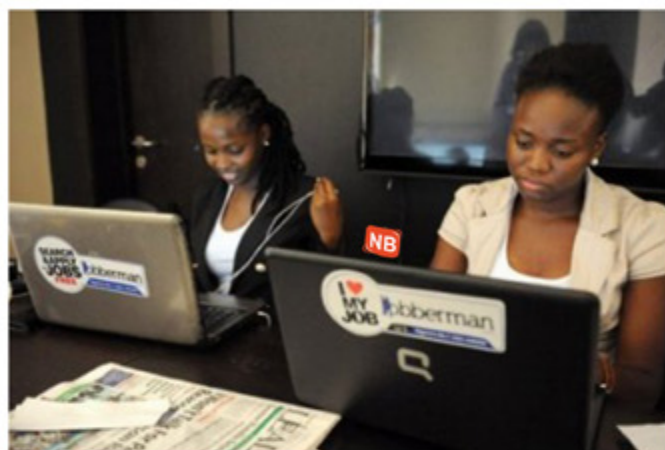

I have come to realize that many people struggle in life because they lack mentors. Many successful people often credit their success to the role a mentor played in their life. Mentors are people who can inspire you to succeed by the sheer feats they themselves have accomplished. They often make a good guide, counsellor, teacher, supporter and adviser because they have been where you aspire to be.

Truth is, there is hardly anything you want to achieve that somebody somewhere has not already accomplished. Like the saying goes, "There is nothing really new under the sun", and as Bertrand Russell said, "The very best proof that something can be done is that someone has done it." The only challenge therefore will be how to discover who has done what you are trying to achieve and figure out how they did it. Seek them out and have them mentor you. We all need a helping hand, and truly successful people are often willing to lend a helping hand (not necessarily by doling out their money).

Top 5 Job Vacancy Listing Sites In Nigeria

Online job sites in Nigeria are gradually taking over the job advert placement. It used to be the norm for companies and organisations to place adverts in newspapers for vacancies that exist within an organisation. Though that still happens, it is now more common to have vacancy information presented on the internet.

Several online platforms today base their primary activities on placing job adverts and notices on their sites. Quite a number of these websites operate in Nigeria, and it would appear that some are more popular than others.

We will look at 5 of the top job vacancy listing sites in Nigeria.

1. Jobberman.com

Jobberman is arguably the most popular job vacancy listing site in Nigeria.

Jobberman, and the reasons why they do what they do:

"The unacceptably high rate of unemployment got us totally perplexed and we decided to "take over the world (Jobs World)" and do something about it." We set out with a mission to organise, deliver and manage the largest catalogue of jobs in Nigeria.
